

Bali ... Stands Outside Time and Distractions

Our time-bound lives blind us from the sacred and our nearly lost connection with Earth and breath. Distractions have become our unconscious pass-time. Little wonder we feel lost to ourselves and each other.

In contrast, Bali's ageless celebration of the divine brings beauty and serenity even in crowded streets. On this island surrounded by azure seas, lush green mountains and a graceful people, the body relaxes, breath returns, and a sense of appreciation tumbles into the soul. To visit Bali is to train your heart to turn toward enduring beauty, the scent of incense, a smile, a gong, outrageous art, and the feel of holy water on your cheek.

For 30 years David has introduced Bali to individuals longing to meet this holy place face to face rather than through the lens of a "tourist". In 2019, David will make those introductions again.

These tours are always a journey of self discovery mixed with the proper amount of group adventure. Rarely do we get an opportunity like this to experience travel as a spiritual practice, the Balinese ways of seeing the world, and at the same time deepen our own vision.

Don't miss this opportunity!
